"A.R." STYLE

Try to estimate the person's age, height, and weight. If you don't think you can come close to a guess, use descriptions like short, medium, tall, very tall; skinny, thin, medium build, large, fat/obese.

If you can see the person's hair, what color was it? Did the person have any facial hair: moustache, goatee, full beard?

Do your best to describe the person's race/ethnicity. Note any marks, scars, tattoos, or other distinguishing marks or characteristics?

If you heard the person speak, did you notice any kind of accent? Speech impediment? Did the person speak loudly or softly; fast or slowly? Did he/she seem excited, angry, or frightened?

Describe the person's clothing. What color was it? Tee shirt or button-up? If a tee shirt or sweat shirt, was there a picture, logo, or writing on it? Long or short sleeves/pant legs? Light jacket, vest, sweat shirt, hoodie, heavy coat? Leather shoes, tennis shoes, work boots? What color were they? Baseball cap, cowboy hat, toboggan? What color? Any logo or words?

VEHICLE BODY STYLES

If the person had a weapon, what kind was it? The pictures illustrate the most common type of firearm you are likely to encounter.

For the vehicle description, very few people will be able to identify the year, make, and model. If you don't know the year, just indicate if it's new, older, or really old. If you can read the make (Chevrolet, Ford, Dodge, etc.) or model (Astro, Blazer, Impala, Yukon, etc.) of the vehicle, provide that.

The picture above illustrates the most common vehicle body styles for comparison.

Try to get the license plate number and the state of issue. If you cannot determine the state, note the color of the license plate, border, and background.

Make a note of any particular identifying dents, scratches, damage (like broken window or tail light), or unusual features of the vehicle. If there are bumper stickers or signs on the vehicle, make a note of what they say.

Note the direction of departure of the problem parties. If you know north, south, east, or west, use that. If you are not sure, indicate toward or away from a landmark. For example: south on Market Street, towards downtown, towards the high school, away from the park.
